

It's not dollars and cents...

You have options!

It's the damage done to our children.

- Drugs/Alcohol
- Emotional Abuse
- Immorality
- Poor Academics
- Bullying
- Arbitrary "justice"

Many public school parents live in a state of anxiety over the daily onslaught their children face in school.

But ... There is hope.

More and more parents are refusing to wait for another school 'reform.' They understand that public school is not good for their children.

“ As a single mom I made the tough financial commitment to not sending my child to public school. Now, eight years later, that choice is blooming. ”

– Nancy Carpenter
Texas

Families are rediscovering independence. Parents of over eight million children have opted out of public schools.

Also independent of the public system are thousands of:

- Learning centers
- Tutors
- Educational co-ops
- Support groups
- Curriculum sources
- Online courses

“ For more than 220 years – from the 1620s to the 1840s – most American schooling was independent of government control, subsidy, and influence.

From this educational freedom the American Republic was born. ”

– Marshall Fritz
Founder of the Alliance

Recover Your Independence ...

“ I can think of no better way to get to the heart of this crucial idea—education benefits children and with them the whole society, while government schools benefit neither.

Listen carefully to the Alliance. Once you glimpse the endless alternatives, your future brightens. As more seize those opportunities, the future brightens for all of us. ”

– John Taylor Gatto

who, after 30 years of award-winning teaching, denounced government school saying, "I am no longer willing to damage children!"
